One Of A Kind Holiday Show Returns To The Mart

The One of a Kind Holiday Show returns to The Mart December 3–6. The handmade holiday market is celebrating a quarter-century, with this year's edition featuring more than 600 artists, designers and makers from across the country. This year's show "will also continue its partnership with Art Encounter, whose experts will lead Fine Art Gallery Talks within the show's dedicated fine art gallery, providing insight into featured works, artistic techniques and the stories behind the pieces on display."
