Features:

Marwen at One of a Kind:

Get creative and enjoy a variety of hands-on art-making workshops led by Marwen, a non-profit organization whose mission is to educate and inspire youth in underserved Chicago communities through the visual arts. Marwen teaching artists will be hosting workshops at the Spring Show, free and fun for all ages!

Emerging Market:

Meet and shop from up-and-coming makers, new to the One of a Kind Show, in the Emerging Market.

Gourmet Market:

Indulge your taste buds on edible art! Find a fantastic selection of gourmet artisans selling a range of delicious specialty items including dips, sauces, confections and baked goods in this special section on the show floor. The Gourmet market artists can be found here.

The Hatchery Pavilion:

Located within the Gourmet Market, this area features emerging food entrepreneurs sampling, selling and showing you "how it's made." The Hatchery Chicago will also be on hand with information for those interested in learning more about starting and growing a food business as well as about how to become involved in this thriving community.

Cafe and Bars:

Find a wide variety of gourmet foods and drinks for any taste palate throughout the show floor, provided by Foodstuffs Gourmet Foods & Catering.

Fine Art Gallery:

Walk through the show's Fine Art Gallery to enjoy a curated exhibition of fine art and sculpture from the show floor.

Fresh Floral Market:

Flowerchild Chicago will be providing a seasonal mix of fresh spring flowers! Guests can either create their own floral bouquet, build a bouquet with the assistance of one of their friendly experienced florists, or choose a beautifully pre-arranged bunch.
