

Block Club Chicago

ARTS & CULTURE

18 Things To Do In Chicago This Weekend: Hyde Park Holly-Day, Tree Lightings And Holiday Markets

Hyde Park Holly-Day, the One of a Kind Holiday Show and Ravenswood Light Up Nights Festival are all on deck.

CHICAGO — The first weekend of December in Chicago is filled with holiday shopping opportunities, tree lightings and seasonal celebrations for all ages.

The One of a Kind Holiday Show is back at the Mart with over 600 artists and makers, local parks will be lighting up their own trees and menorahs, Lillstreet Art Center is celebrating 50 years of being a creative space and the Chris White Jazz Trio is performing “A Charlie Brown Christmas” tunes at the Lincoln Park Zoo.

One of a Kind Holiday Show and Sale

10 a.m.–7 p.m. Thursday–Saturday, 10 a.m.–5 p.m. Sunday

Merchandise Mart – 7th floor, 222 Merchandise Mart Plaza

The One of a Kind Holiday Show returns for its 24th year with over 600 artists, designers and makers. Alongside this unique holiday shopping event that attracts thousands of guests each year, people can enjoy artful projections on the Mart after the market each night at 7:30 p.m. More info here.